PRINCIPAL

Vern Alderson

Mr. Carter's humor and humaneness, his vitality and his willingness to help us have made him a part of Rocky Grove High that we shall always remember.

The Class of 1950 has found in its new principal, Mr. Alderson, an understanding and sympathetic friend. We shall long remember him for the new thoughts, methods and principles which he so aptly wove into our school system.

"CLASS WILL"

ARTICLE I

On this twenty-first day of May, One-Thousand-Nine-Hundred-and-Fifty, we, the Senior Class of Rocky Grove High School, Sugarcreek Township, Venango County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, supposedly of sound and disposing mind and body, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament, in order, as justly as may be, to distribute our interests in the school among the succeeding classes, and with the official publishing of this, do hereby and herewith declare all previous incumbent commitments null and void.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Carter and various members of the faculty, we leave the peace and quiet that prevails after our stormy twelve years which were spent here.

To Mr. Alderson we leave the sincere wish that next year's year-book staff will get the "Hilltopper" out by May 1, 1951.

To Miss Heckard and Mrs. MacMaster we leave our "sunny faces and good behavior."

To the Junior class we bequeath our cherished motto, "Sticks and stones may break our bones, but words will never harm us."

To the future basketball teams we leave the spirit and speed of our team, to be matched and surpassed.

ARTICLE III

Raimer Baltzell leaves to drive his car into the river to test its "floating power."

Marilyn Banister has nothing to leave, but it is rumored that she wants to take Bill Karns with her.

Jim Brannon leaves his desk in Physics class as he hopes to find a more convenient place to sleep.

Ruth Buck leaves, rejoicing that she won't need "Mamma's excuse" to get back.

Shirley Byrd leaves to assist Walter Winchell with his gossip column.

Dick Clark leaves his ability to get elected President to Governor Dewey.

Chuck Coughlan leaves his "heavy dates" to Bill Hunter.

Rebecca Dave leaves her "silly grin" to Miss Farina.

Shirley Davis leaves her height: 5' if she stretches: to Lilly Rishel.

Rebecca Dilla leaves to learn the technique of taking pulses.

Angelo DiMino leaves his golden voice to "The Voice of Firestone."

Joyce Douglas leaves her voice to Margaret Truman.

Louise Fuller leaves her paper doll men 'cause (she says) they're all cut ups.

Don Gates leaves his three illegal days to Bill Dolan.

Pat Grimm leaves her long fingernails to Sally Rosenberger who could use an addition on hers.

Marion Guth leaves her policy "Silence is Golden" to Carol Nellis.

Chuck Haun leaves a piece of wire to Miss Farina so she may repair her typewriters.

Doe Hawthorne leaves her ability to make it to school between late bells to any Junior needing same.

Mary Etta Hazelton leaves her ability to sing in Chemistry class, without being caught, to any Junior willing to take the chance.

Garnet Heffernan leaves her glasses to anyone who will wear them.

Boyd Karns leaves his neckties to John Rodgers.

Peg Kelly leaves her stage fright to Raymond Mong.

Don Kightlinger leaves his history book to "some sucker" in the tenth grade.

Donna Kline leaves to marry Ben eventually.

Jerry Klinger leaves his ill temper to Tom Gibbons.

Beverly Kunkel leaves her knack of getting out of classes to Leah Rae Deeter.

Earl Krepp leaves his mannerly ways to Jack Simpson.

Sara Loomis leaves her love of perfume to the Chemistry class.

Norma Long leaves her innocent stare to anyone who needs it.

Marilyn Masters leaves no chance for anyone to get her negatives of John.
Mary McCartney leaves her ability to "keep quiet" to anyone who could use same.

Bob McClimans leaves his green and white truck parked in front of the school house because Andy disconnected the spark plugs.

Lyle McKain leaves his "flaming curls" in order to give some business to the fire patrol.

Bob Martin leaves his harem of underclassmen to Bob Shuffstall.

Marjorie Mong leaves to prove to some boy that her vocational education is useful.

DeWayne Mong leaves to grow taller.

Nancy Morrison leaves her place on Sporty Seven to some worthy underclassman.

Ben Neely leaves to the Juniors a group of teachers who upon his departure, he is sure, will be of much sounder mind.

Violet Netzler leaves her "stupidity" to Linda Burchfield hoping that she uses it in the commercial classes.

Judy O'Day leaves her form to the income tax filers.

Sue Reitz leaves her title of Christmas Queen to the most deserving Senior girl of the class of 1951.

Fred Perry leaves with a sigh of relief.

Raymond Prenatt leaves to find a date for next New Year's Eve.

Joan Rembold leaves Don within the gates of R. G. H. S. forever.

Mae Reynolds leaves her textbooks in hope of finding a good cook book.

Barb Robertson leaves her muscle-building apparatus to Bev Brady.

Marilyn Robertson leaves all the gum under her assembly seat to Sally Weaver.

Mary Shindledecker leaves her violin to be the victim of Mr. Master-son's wrath.

Kay Singleton leaves her guardian angel to future drivers who may need it.

Cork Smith leaves his tall tales to future P. O. D. classes.

Keith Smith leaves his secret formula for making angles to future mechanical drawing classes.

Mary Jane Spencer leaves her good marks to be divided among the underclassmen.

John Tincler leaves his "Chevy" to anyone who has access to Ft. Kn -.

Harold Ward leaves his wolfing past to Jack Adams.

Jane Wertman leaves her inimitable skill at hogging the best basketball in gym class to whoever can achieve the same.

Lorraine Williams leaves her poetic ability to the Junior Class because they sure will need it.

Ken Williams leaves his mischievous ways and ability to graduate.

Andy Yurkanin leaves to put Bob McClimans spark plugs to better use.

This was written by four pieces of bread, as we are crumby and have the crust to admit it.....stale aren't we?????

Rocky Grove Scores 52-30 Victory Over Franklin

Orioles Outplay Nursery; Sweep Into Early Lead

Rocky Grove High cagers completely outplayed Franklin to score a 52-30 victory Tuesday night on their home court before a capacity crowd.

Only in the second quarter when it scored 18 points, did the Nursery figure in the contest. Otherwise it was all Rocky Grove's game. Coach Vince Curran's dribblers were dead set on winning and had the Red and Black reeling from the start.

The Orioles opened with an 8-0 lead before the Nursery marked up a point. At the end of the first quarter the score was 16-5, more than enough to sustain the Grovers as Franklin made its only offensive showing of the game during the second period. With Franklin pulling to within 23-30 of the Orioles at the half, there were prospects of a close battle in the last two periods.

But a pair of foul points by Mike Mong was the most the Nursery could muster in the third frame and Rocky Grove sailed ahead, 43-25. All the excitement was over as the Grove managed to pad its lead some more in the final period.

Little Charles Coughlan came through with 16 points for the Orioles, some of his six field goals coming on trick shots. He was a defensive star, too, breaking up a good many Franklin plays.

Coughlan and Bob McClimans, who tallied all nine of his points in the first half, carried the scoring burden in those two periods, while big Ray Baltzell was the most potent in the second half. Andy Yurkanin kept things working in favor of the Orange and Black and made several assists on field goals.

While Coach John Uram's passers caught fire in the second period, their heavy fouling helped put them under wraps. Three Franklinites eventually left the contest with five personals, Bob Andres was sidelined early in the third quarter, Jim McCullough at the end of that frame and Bill McGuckin midway in the last period.

Two Grove players, McClimans and Harold Ward, taken out of action for a spell when they flirted with the limit on fouls, too.

The victory was the fourth in seven games for Rocky Grove. Franklin has a 3-4 record.

The result gave the Orioles revenge for two defeats handed last season's Grove quintet, which won the District 10 Class B championship.
